

- 1) Clubs should always have a proper written agreement with any coach that operates on their premises. The LTA website provides resources to facilitate this. If you log in and go to the 'Workforce and Venues' section and then scroll down to "resources" it can be found there. There are sample contracts to use as a guide.

Club committees should review their arrangements at least annually and expect a report from their coach against a set of targets. If this happens there are rarely any issues. If these arrangements are not put in place then if there is a problem, or simply the need or desire for a change, it is much harder to institute or resolve.
