THE COUNTY PRESIDENT 2004

Reginald Brace

By the Handbook Editor

Reginald Brace, the new president of the Yorkshire Lawn Tennis Association, will complete 60 years in journalism this year. Reg left Bramley Council School in Leeds when he was 14 to become a copy boy on the Yorkshire Evening Post, then based in Albion Street, Leeds.

"You sat on a bench in the sub-editors' room and acted as a runner for them. They used to shout 'boy!' and you would leap up and do whatever they wanted, such as putting copy - typed stories which they marked with instructions for the printers - into a tube which would whisk it off into the composing room. That's where it was distributed to compositors to be converted into lines of lead type."

Reg was born in Bradford, the son of Edgar, a moulder at a Leeds engineering firm, and Ellen. A cousin who worked on The Yorkshire Post was his inspiration to go into newspapers. Looking back on his earliest days in the business he recalls picking up hand-written copy from court reporters and dashing back to the office with it and occasionally going out with a photographer to deliver their exposed plates to the picture editor. That was in the pre-digital days of bulky Speed Graphic cameras with flash bulbs.

Eventually he was promoted to Editor's Boy. "It was another rung in life's ladder. I had a desk of my own in another part of the building and sat there with the editor's secretary waiting for the buzzer to go. The editor was Henry Futrell and I made sure he saw all the proofs and brought his lunch from the canteen. He was a nice chap who wished me well when I left to become a reporter on a weekly newspaper in Leeds."

Reg remembers the D-Day edition of the Yorkshire Evening Post hitting the streets in 1944. Just over a year later he joined the Armley and Wortley News, which was part of the Leeds Guardian series of weeklies with a tiny office in the city's main thoroughfare, The Headrow. "There wasn't any training as such," he recalls. "It was a matter of picking the job up as you went along. Meanwhile I was learning shorthand and typing at night school.

"The Armley and Wortley News was a popular weekly, but it would be hard for a newspaper like that to survive these days. I used a bike to go on my rounds, picking up local news from churches, working men's clubs and other organisations. One night I was pedalling furiously to cover a church pantomime when my front wheel caught in a tramline. I came down with an almighty crash but picked myself up, dusted myself off and made the opening curtain."

Reg began two years' National Service in the Royal Air Force in 1948, based for the most part at a group headquarters unit of Flying Training Command at Morton Hall, near Swinderby in Lincolnshire. "I had a good job as secretary to the Commanding Officer, but ironically I never left the ground in my entire service career. Many years later, returning from a holiday in Devon, I made a nostalgic visit to Morton Hall and was mildly amused to find it had become an open Borstal. The staff made me very welcome and I was allowed to wander around and stir memories of my time there."

When he was demobilised, Reg had an interview with Bradford's evening newspaper, the Telegraph and Argus, and joined the staff in 1950 as a news reporter. "I was there for two years, still learning the job because life on a daily was much more demanding than that on a weekly, particularly after two years absence in the RAF. I was there at the same time as Peter Holdsworth, a great mate of mine who wrote about theatre, and Leonard Parkin, who went on to achieve fame as a TV reporter and presenter."

*"I was hauled

It is here that tennis enters the equation. Reg's first pieces on the sport were written at the 1950 Ilkley tournament for the Telegraph and Argus and its then sister morning paper the Yorkshire Observer. "The tennis correspondent was on holiday so I was hauled in to deputise, travelling out there in one of those big red West Yorkshire double-decker buses. Andre Kalman, a Hungarian who owned an art gallery in Manchester won the men's singles, beating Brian Webb, a Huddersfield solicitor who was Yorkshire LTA president in 1974, in the final.

"Sheila Speight, a Leeds-born player who represented Gloucestershire, took the women's title. I also covered the Heaton tournament and in my yellowing cuttings I have a picture of Joyce Fulton, aged 12, on her way to the courts. Joyce was the youngest competitor at Heaton that year according to the caption."

In 1952, Reg moved to the Bradford office of the Yorkshire Post and Yorkshire Evening Post, which was then in Market Street. He worked there for six years doing a variety of shifts and covering all aspects of life in a busy city. Ironically one of his jobs during that time was covering the last night of publication of the Yorkshire Observer.

His interest in tennis remained undiminished and in 1958 he made inquiries about the job of Yorkshire Post tennis correspondent after noticing that the post had fallen by the wayside. "The next thing I knew I was thrown in at the deep end and asked to cover what became the first of 44 Wimbledons. In retrospect it was an extraordinary development for a branch office reporter. One minute I was working from the office diary in Bradford; the next I was at the All England Club describing the championship-winning feats of Ashley Cooper and Althea Gibson. In the autumn, I moved to head office of the Yorkshire Post as a news reporter but still covering tennis.

"Very soon I was writing a column about jazz, which has always been a subject close to my heart. I was 37 when the paper set up its first features department and I stayed there until I officially retired in 1991 - latterly as chief feature writer. I still write about tennis and jazz for the paper now, even at my advanced age!"

Reg's role as a feature writer included interviewing some of the leading names in show business from the likes of Louis Armstrong, Tom Jones, Shirley Bassey, Roy Orbison, Johnny Mathis, Paul McCartney, Mick Jagger and Sting to Peter Ustinov, Ralph Richardson, Dustin Hoffman, Dirk Bogarde, Omar Sharif, Warren Mitchell and Albert Finney.

Our president spent a day in a London recording studio with Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire, went on the road with Deep Purple - and travelled with Halifax speedway rider Chris Pusey for a week. A couple of General Election tours with Margaret Thatcher add to the picture of a crowded life.

"I usually tried to combine my overseas tennis travels with a feature of some sort. Indeed, it was expected of me! I remember interviewing Lena Horne in Stockholm, George Shearing in New York, the legendary cricketer Harold Larwood in Sydney. My most vivid recollection of all is visiting a Bucharest orphanage immediately after the Ceausescu uprising. I have never been more touched or felt closer to tears on a story."

Yorkshire has always played a prominent part in Reg's life as a tennis writer. He covered the splendid achievements of Roger Taylor in reaching three singles semi-finals at Wimbledon - including that epic defeat of Rod Laver in 1970 - and was at the courtside when Michael Hann put out fifth-seeded Chuck McKinley in the 1962 Championships. The progress of Elizabeth Starkie, Sue Mappin, John Clifton and Gary Henderson were also faithfully recorded in the Yorkshire Post, along with the exploits of other Yorkshire players making their bid for stardom.

County Week has been a special interest for more than 40 years. Reg recalls covering his first Inter-County Grass Court Championships in 1962 when both Yorkshire teams were in Group One at Eastbourne. "The Yorkshire men's team on the first day was Michael Hann and Roger Taylor at first pair, Alan Hartley and Terry Pickering at second and Brian Sheridan and Dickie Dillon at third. The county women's side was Elizabeth Starkie and Margaret Cooper, Joyce Fulton and Fran Marshall and Val Clark and Sally Holdsworth.

"I've reported every County Week since then. But how times change! Players used to take a week's holiday for the honour of representing Yorkshire. Within the county itself we had an extremely lively tennis circuit with week-long tournaments at Chapel Allerton, Halifax, Heaton, Huddersfield, Ilkley and Saltaire, and, at Scarborough in successive weeks, the Yorkshire Championships and the North of England Championships.

"They were particularly happy days at Scarborough - marvellous times socially and competitively. A halcyon era. I was saddened when the Filey

Road stadium was allowed to fall into dereliction when the Corporation decided it was too expensive to maintain after building a sports hall within the grounds.

"The Centre Court at Filey Road was once the hub of tennis in the county. I saw Rod Laver and Pancho Gonzales play there and I remember Britain beating

"They were particularly happy days at Scarborough"

West Germany in a Davis Cup European Zone quarter-final there. According to my records, the last North of England Championships were held there in 1967 and the Yorkshire Championships moved to Hull after being staged at Scarborough for the last time in 1971.

"Years of neglect followed and that lovely old stadium went into a crumbling decline. I always thought it was ironic that Scarborough's rejection of tournament tennis came just as open tennis arrived and sponsorship of the game was beginning to escalate. As you will have gathered, I hold Scarborough and all its memories with deep affection."

Reg covered the first ever Open tournament, the British Hard Court

"Drob always called me partner"

Championships at Bournemouth in April, 1968, and watched John Clifton serve the first ball in a match between an amateur and a professional when he played Australia's Owen Davidson. He went on to cover the end-of-season Masters events in Melbourne, Boston, Stockholm, Houston and New York, plus Davis Cup ties in Rome, Barcelona, Paris and Bucharest, the US Open at both Forest Hills and Flushing Meadow and the French Open. In addition there were regular visits to Dallas for Lamar Hunt's World Championship Tennis finals and to New York for the Tournament of Champions.

Reg - a stalwart for Upper Armley LTC in the Yorkshire League for almost 40 years - always took his racket with him on his travels and this occasionally allowed him to play at celebrated venues when there were no spectators. He has played on the legendary horseshoe shaped court at Forest Hills, at Flushing Meadow, on a rooftop court in Dallas, on the grass at Kooyong, and the clay of Barcelona Polo Club.

He has also represented and frequently captained the Lawn Tennis Writers' Association team against the All England Club. In the 1967 fixture he found himself paired with the 1954 Wimbledon champion Jaroslav Drobny, who was writing for a London evening newspaper at the time. "It was nerve-wracking but hugely enjoyable," he recalls. "There I was, a hacker who had never risen higher than Division Three of the Yorkshire League partnering a Wimbledon hero. Whenever we met after that Drob always called me partner." The LTWA team, incidentally, was completed by Tony Mottram, John Ballantine, Roy McKelvie and Bernard Joy.

Reg finally retired from Yorkshire League competition at the age of 60, having enjoyed a 25-year doubles partnership with the late Michael Blackah ("a dear friend and colleague"), who covered Yorkshire tennis for the Telegraph and Argus. Latterly Reg has been the voice of the British Tour, a series of linked tournaments which are a level below Satellites, in a monthly review in British Tennis magazine.

Tennis reporting, he says, has changed in the same way as sports reporting as a whole. "In the days of Lance Tingay of the Daily Telegraph, David Gray of the Guardian and Rex Bellamy of The Times tennis writing usually meant describing the ebb and flow of a match in an entertaining way. Nowadays pieces tend to be quotes-led and often concentrate on personalities and off-court matters. This is not meant to be critical or disparaging. It's just the way sports writing has gone."

Reg and Shirley - they met when she was Bradford's Press Ball Princess - celebrate their 41st wedding anniversary this year ("she is not a tennis player but has graciously tolerated my obsession with the game all these years"). They have a daughter, Alison, who plays tennis a bit but is now a full-time mother of two lively daughters aged four and two after spending 17 years in journalism during which she rose to become education correspondent of The Mail on Sunday.

*Reg Brace, 74, is an honorary vice-president and former chairman of the Lawn Tennis Writers' Association. He was voted Provincial Sports Reporter of the Year in 1978, was highly commended in 1982 and 1986, and became Yorkshire's Sports Writer of the Year in 1991. He won the feature writing award in the 1988 Whitbread Regional Press Awards.

WHY CLUBS SHOULD JOIN THE YORKSHIRE L.T.A/L.T.A

When a club affiliates to the L.T.A it automatically receives benefits from the National Body. In addition, in applying through the County Body (Y.L.T.A.) the club receives advice and services from Y.L.T.A. Tennis Manager, Club Development Officers and Administrative staff. Finally the Officers and Councillors who make up the Association's personnel (see Pages 7, 8 and 9) are also in regular contact to assist the member clubs.

National Level

1. Affiliated clubs have a standing in the lawn tennis world which they cannot otherwise attain.
2. The L.T.A operate an interest-free funding scheme under which Club Vision allows many clubs to upgrade their courts, provide floodlights and indoor courts and improve their clubhouse.
3. The L.T.A have a Court, Club and Technical Advisory Service available to all clubs free of charge. However, where specific technical advice is required, the L.T.A will refer matters to Court Advisory Services. They will "visit and advise" or "analyse and advise," and the L.T.A will contribute towards these services and will pay the necessary travelling expenses.
4. L.T.A financial support of county and regional centres means specialised coaching and the playing of tennis all year round.
5. Clubs benefit from negotiated sponsorship both nationally and within the county.
6. The L.T.A provide free the annual handbook which incorporates the Club Manual, and is full of interesting statistics and general information about the game. The official magazines of the L.T.A - Ace British Tennis - are also sent out to all clubs.
7. The County Association, through the L.T.A, secure an allotment of tickets for the Championships at Wimbledon, and these are distributed to affiliated clubs according to the size of their membership.
8. The Officials and the Association are only too glad to give help and advice to those who wish it, by talks, exhibition matches and will run forums and seminars from time to time.
9. The L.T.A offers legal advice, particularly on Threatened Loss of Grounds.
10. Affiliation of the County Association carries with it the affiliation of a club to the L.T.A with the right to vote, (personally or by proxy) at its general meetings and at all meetings through the County representatives, and so help the government and control of the game nationally.

County Level

1. By joining the County Association, clubs help to control, develop and encourage the game in their own county and benefit from Club Vision.
2. Affiliated clubs may take part in the Yorkshire Leagues Inter-Cup Competition, the National League and other competitions.
3. Members of affiliated clubs have a right to take part in the Yorkshire Closed Championships (they must also satisfy a number of other conditions).

4. Yorkshire has its own Training and Coaching schemes to enhance a county and team player.
5. Clubs receive the County L.T.A Handbook
6. Clubs receive periodic County Bulletins/Newsletters when published.
7. County Officials have undertaken a club assessment under the L.T.A's Club Vision programme and are subsequently working with all affiliated clubs in an attempt to achieve the club's longer term ambitions or vision.

Purposes of Full Affiliation

1. To provide the structure through which the game is managed effectively.
2. To provide channels of communication with the L.T.A which is the umbrella organisation/Governing Body for all tennis in Great Britain.
3. To welcome all those involved in the game and to provide the opportunity for representation within the structure.
4. To raise income, primarily in the Counties, to manage the game.
5. To ensure that the affiliation structure is appealing and affordable to those affiliated and attractive to those who are not currently affiliated.
6. To provide appropriate benefits and services alongside affiliation.

Method of Affiliation

Clubs affiliate to their County L.T.A paying a fee calculated on a per capita basis. By paying these fees to the County Association, the club also becomes affiliated to the Lawn Tennis Association.

Each of the four Area Co-ordinators has established an Area Committee of teachers, including primary, secondary, state and independent colleagues. They plan an annual programme of activities including teacher training, playdays, coaching and competition (including District Area tournaments). The BSTA competitions for Year 8 and Year 10 and under continue to be run by league secretaries, as before.

County Finals

The primary schools' mini-tennis county final is to be held at South Leeds ITI on Monday 28 June and Tuesday 29 June 2004.

The secondary schools' Year 8 and Year 10 and under county final is to be held at South Leeds ITI on Monday 20 September 2004.

Financial Support

The work of the CSA is funded, through affiliation fees, by the BSTA. Each Area receives modest funding annually to support tennis development. The mini-tennis programme is sponsored by the Yorkshire Post.

YORKSHIRE LTA INITIATIVE 2004

Basically it is:

- A fund formed by corporate bodies and individuals each year
- The funds which financially assist in subsidising all our activities and not just a specific event
- Assisting in development performance competition and promotion of tennis throughout the County
- Making the sport accessible to a wider community and ultimately raises standards

Why should corporate bodies and individuals provide us with their support?

- Local companies are contributing to their own local community activities in tennis
- Yorkshire LTA tennis being used in the corporate bodies advertising, public relations, marketing and sales promotion activities
- If requested, association with established events and development initiatives in their specific district of the County
- Enjoy specific benefits that will provide a year round association with the County tennis scene eg County Championships, District Tournaments, Wimbledon package, access to other tennis events sanctioned by the LTA held in the County or elsewhere

Supporters of the Initiative during 2002 are listed in alphabetical order as follows and we are grateful and appreciative of their support.

RULES OF "THE YORKSHIRE DOUBLES LEAGUE"

- The competition shall be called the "The Yorkshire Doubles League."
- The grouping of competing clubs shall be determined by the league committee appointed by the Executive Council of the YLTA. In the normal course of events, in the men's division (except Division One) the top two teams will compete in a play off competition against two teams from the other division at their level - the winners playing the other division's runner-up. The two winning teams from the play offs held at each level will be promoted and a match played to decide the divisional winner. A maximum of two teams will be relegated from both divisions at each level and a minimum of two and a maximum of four teams will be relegated from men's division one. The winning team in men's and ladies division one will be the overall winner. In the ladies divisions the top two teams will be promoted and the bottom two teams relegated.
- The winners of all League trophies, cups and shields shall be entitled to hold them until the end of the following season.
- The club holding any shield, cup or trophy shall be responsible for its safe custody and return as the Executive Council shall decide, and also bear the cost of insuring it against loss.
- The property in every shield, cup or trophy competed for shall be vested in the YLTA, and no other prize or award (other than club colours) shall be given too or accepted by a winning club without the sanction of the executive council.
- Match times should be scheduled for no later than 3.00pm for those taking place on Saturdays and Sundays, and no later than 6.30pm for those playing on a weekday evening.
Any couple(s) not on court and ready to play within 30 minutes of the agreed start time, shall concede the rubber(s) in question. Such rubbers should be clearly indicated on the scorecard. Any clubs found to be persistently late starters are liable to suffer such penalties as the League Committee consider appropriate.
- In all divisions matches shall be the best of three sets. If a rubber is tied at one set all then a deciding tie break to 10 points (to be won by 2 clear points) will be played instead of a full set. A normal tie break will be played in the first two sets. If a match has been decided after the first two rounds of matches (i.e. a 6-0 or 5-1 win) then a deciding tie break to 10 points (to be won by 2 clear points) will be played and the result will count as a full rubber.
- For each win, a club shall count two points. The club will be positioned in the league according to the number of points won. If teams are tied on points then they shall be placed in the table according to the number of rubbers, sets, games won.
- Team players representing a club must be one of the bone-fide members of that club and no player can play for more than one club in the same season.
- The whole of the fixtures or matches in each division shall be arranged between match secretaries at a meeting arranged by the League Committee for this purpose.
- All matches/re-arranged matches in the Men's league (except division One) shall be completed by the end of August. The first round of play off matches for the top two teams in each division will then be played on September 5th 2004 with the finals being held on 18th September 2004. In the Ladies League and Men's first division all matches/re-arranged matches must be completed by September 26th 2004.
- a. If, for any reason other than bad weather, a club is asked to re-arrange the date of a match previously agreed and submitted to the office after the fixture meeting, that club is urged to view the request sympathetically and offer 2 revised dates, provided the arrangement does not seriously compromise the innocent party. If, however agreement cannot be reached then the original date shall stand. Two weeks notice to the other team captain should be given to try to re-schedule a match.

- 12b. If a match is postponed owing to bad weather, the home team captain shall at once submit to the visiting captain at least two further dates when the match may be completed or replayed (see also rule 16).
- 12c. If within 21 days from the date when the match should have been played, no new arrangements have been agreed then the match captain of the visiting league shall notify the league secretary who shall make a final decision.
13. It is the responsibility of the team captains to fulfil their match commitments. If however, a team concedes a match for whatever reason, then that team will be deemed to have lost that match by 9 rubbers to 0 and will be deducted 2 points. The team having won by forfeit shall have added to its tally of rubbers, for and against, an average number of their own matches played or a minimum of 5 rubbers/10 sets for per match, whichever is the higher. (see also Rule 15). If a couple is absent from a match, the three rubbers concerned will be forfeited with a recorded score 6-0 6-0 for each rubber.
14. If it becomes apparent that a team gains a title or promotion or is able to avoid relegation as a result of a match improperly conceded or not played, appropriate action will be taken to negate such benefits.
15. If any match is unfinished, it may by mutual consent be continued within 21 days with the same teams otherwise the match must be played de nova at a date mutually agreed upon by the two captains on or before September 26th 2004.
16. If a club shall withdraw from the competition before completing its engagements, all the records of matches played by that club shall be expunged.
17. The winning captain shall communicate the result in writing to the League Organiser at the Yorkshire County office, 2 College Close, Beckett Park, Leeds LS6 3QS within 7 days or 1 point may be deducted.
18. An entry fee of £5.00 + vat will be charged for each team entered.
- 19a. If a club enters more than one team in the ladies or men's competition, the captain must nominate four players who will be allowed to play in the first team only before the first match is played.
- 19b. Where a club has more than one team, once a player has played twice in a higher division they cannot play again for the lower team again in that season. If this rule is breached, the offending club will be deemed to have lost each rubber played by the ineligible player(s) 0-6 0-6.
- 19c. Where the club has two teams in the same division, they must play one another in their first home match of the season.
20. The home captain will allocate the courts and be the final arbitrator on whether the courts are fit for play. Level pairs will play together first and the visiting couples will remain on the same court for the duration of the match unless otherwise agreed by both team captains at the start. The home team pairs will move up or down determined by toss at the start of the match.
21. Recognised tennis clothing must be worn for all matches.
22. All differences and disputes shall be referred and settled by the Yorkshire Disciplinary Committee. Short particulars thereof shall be sent in writing to the Committee by the clubs concerned who may be represented at the Meeting convened to deal with the matter. Notice will be given in writing prior to any meeting taking place.
23. For the breach of any of these rules, and for any other irregularity, the Disciplinary Committee may impose such penalties as it may think fit, either by way of deducting points or otherwise.
